Dear Bill:

I was delighted to hear from you, via [redacted] and was most interested in the situation outlined in your letter. As you point out, there are a number of angles to this story that bear scrutiny, and we are looking into them thoroughly. Thanks very much indeed for taking so much time and trouble to inform me.

I recall with some nostalgia the trip we made together to [redacted] - in perhaps less hectic days. I know something of some of the good things you have been doing since then on the Digest and the Gazette.

With warmest regards

Faithfully,
